

Biography

President of Performance Matters, Inc. and a University of Georgia research professor, Dr. Schempp conducts research on experts and consults on the development of expertise. A Senior Fulbright Research Scholar to Germany and named the 2004 Distinguished Scholar by the International Center for Performance Excellence, he has authored four books, 60 articles, and delivered over 100 presentations in 19 countries. He is considered one of the world's leading experts on expertise.